

"The Labor of Leisure: Reconsidering the Work of Tourism in Rural Ethnic China"

A talk with filmmaker Dr. Jenny Chio, Emory University, and a special screening of her documentary 农家乐 Peasant Family Happiness. A public event held in conjunction with the exhibition Quilts of Southwest China 中国西南拼布, on view now through January 21, 2018 at the Museum of International Folk Art.

Sunday afternoon, October 8, 2 p.m. in the Museum of Indian Art and Culture's auditorium; free with museum admission. Children 16 and under and museum members are always free! MUSEUMFOUNDATION.ORG/JOIN

The exhibition Quilts of Southwest China and its accompanying publication are generously supported by the Henry Luce Foundation. Additional support comes from the International Folk Art Foundation, the Museum of New Mexico Foundation and donors to the Exhibitions Development Fund, the E. Rhodes and Leona B. Carpenter Foundation, and the Friends of the International Quilt Study Center & Museum, University of Nebraska-Lincoln. Project partners include the Yunnan Nationalities Museum (Kunming, Yunnan, China); the Anthropology Museum of Guangxi (Nanning, Guangxi, China); the Guizhou Nationalities Museum (Guiyang, Guizhou, China); Michigan State University Museum; the Mathers Museum of World Cultures, Indiana University; the Museum of International Folk Art; the International Quilt Study Center and Museum, University of Nebraska-Lincoln; the American Folklore Society, and the Chinese Folklore Society.

E. RHODES AND LEONA B.
CARPENTER FOUNDATION

Pictured: Longhorn Miao women posing for tourists in Liuzhi Suojia village, Guizhou Province, China. Photo by Carrie Hertz, 2015.

ENJOY BISTRO DINING WITH A VIEW AT MUSEUM HILL CAFÉ

MUSEUM OF INTERNATIONAL
FOLK ART

On Museum Hill in Santa Fe
InternationalFolkArt.org
505-476-1200

NEW MEXICO DEPARTMENT OF
CULTURAL AFFAIRS